

THE GERMAN JUBILEE.

FOURTH DAY OF THE SCHUTZENFEST.

Large Attendance and New and Varied Amusements—The Eagle Completely Demolished—The Coronation and Festivities for To-Day.

The great German Schutzenfest was no less enjoyable yesterday than on the previous days of the festival, and the increased throng of visitors testified to an even greater interest in the festivities than had been exhibited before. The Schutzenfest combines the attractions of a picnic, a variety show and a target exhibition, and it affords opportunity for enjoyment, and emulation in all of these directions. The ample and charming grounds of the Platz furnish an agreeable relief from the dust and heat of the city, the amusements are constantly varying and always enjoyable, the dancing saloon is the scene of an incessant ball, and the shooting grounds afford an unending field of honorable emulation to the marksmen of the German Rifle Club and their scarcely less skillful guests, the Carolina Club. It is in the shooting at the various targets that the interest of the male portion of the visitors naturally centres, and yesterday the curiosity of the visitors was gratified by the complete demolition of the eagle, which is, of course, the principal object for the emulation of the marksmen. The eagle, poised upon a lofty pole at a distance of two hundred yards from the marksmen, presented at the beginning of yesterday's shooting a rather melancholy spectacle from the effects of the shots of the previous days, and only the wings, the tail and the body were left to excite the rivalry of the contending marksmen. The shooting began in earnest at nine o'clock A. M., and at about half-past ten the left wing was shot away by Mr. H. Benson. Two hours later the right wing was won by Mr. Henry Buck, and soon after the tail of the royal bird was carried away, but the shot having been named for the body the prize reverted to the club. The firing continued, and about two P. M., the body was shot away by Mr. F. H. Ploger, who thereby becomes the king of the fest for the ensuing year. A large fragment of the body was shot away by Mr. D. Lillenthal, but, upon weighing the pieces, that which was won by Mr. Ploger was declared to be the largest, and he will, therefore, be crowned king. The coronation of the new king will take place this afternoon with due regal honors. The procession, being formed, will escort the newly-crowned king to the grand stand, where he will be crowned, and he will then select and name his queen, who in turn will name her maids of honor. This probably be the most interesting feature of to-day's entertainment, and will be accompanied by addresses, music and loyal demonstrations to the new king and his fair consort.

THE GENERAL AMUSEMENTS were as usual in full blast yesterday, and included the same enjoyable features as on previous days. The man-monkey performed his curious antics, the pious-knights industriously climbed greased poles and chased greased pigs, and the carousals attracted their usual swarms of patrons. The amusement committee proved themselves especially fertile in resources, and if at any moment the interest appeared to flag, some new diversion was sure to be forthcoming. At about four o'clock Professor Bond repeated his perilous feat upon the wire stretched from the roof of the dancing saloon to a tall pine a hundred feet away, and held the vast, expectant audience spell-bound. He walked forward and backward upon the slender wire, squatted cross-legged, lay down, jumped up, hung by one arm, and displayed every possible feat of the gymnast or contortionist, all at the height of sixty feet from the ground, and with as much nonchalance as though performing on a parlor floor. He afterward appeared with a capacious bag encircling his head and the whole upper part of his body and went through the same performance; and then he came out dressed in the character of an eccentric old woman, and acted the character to the life—all on a wire of three-eighths of an inch in diameter, and at sixty feet from the ground.

A SIDE SHOW.

There is only one side show upon the grounds and that is the "talking head," which is exhibited under a canvas awning near the booths on the north side of the Platz. The visitor, entering the tent, sees lying upon a common centre-table what appears to be a human head entirely disengaged from its body, but still possessed of life and able to answer intelligently but sadly any questions addressed to it. In reply to inquiries in a sympathetic tone from the audience, the head discharges the fact that it was disengaged from its body by the intervention of a guillotine during the Commune in Paris; that it is forty-one years old, and only asks for death. It rolls its eyes in the most frightfully natural manner, shows its tongue, winks mournfully at the audience, and answers all reasonable inquiries without hesitation, but with a not unnatural tone of melancholy.

TO-DAY'S FESTIVITIES.

This, being the last day of the Fest, will be a gala day, and the following programme has been arranged:

1. The riflemen meet at the Schutzenplatz.
2. The shooting begins as on former days.
3. All firing will cease this day at 1 o'clock P. M.
4. Coronation of the new king and distribution of prizes at 4 o'clock P. M., with appropriate remarks by the orator of the day.
5. General amusements as on former days.
6. Grand ball from 12 M. to 7 o'clock P. M.
7. At the conclusion of the festivities, a salute of three guns will be fired.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT.

The Ladies' Mutual Aid Association gratefully acknowledge the receipt of twenty-five dollars ($25) from "A Friend," through Mrs. Forrest.

EXCURSION.

The steamer Pocahontas, Captain W. H. Gannon, will leave the wharf at the foot of Market street, at half-past nine o'clock to-morrow morning, on one of those delightful excursions to the Phosphate Works and gardens along the banks of the Ashley River. There can be no pleasanter recreation for a day than a trip in the country just now in the first blush of spring, and with Tully on board, life will doubtless cease to be a burden for the time. Those who have the time to spare can hardly pass a more delightful Saturday.

THE ST. GEORGE'S SOCIETY.—The one hundred and thirty-third anniversary of this society was celebrated at the Oaks Clubhouse, when the following officers, for the ensuing year, were unanimously elected: H. P. Walker, president; William Watson, vice-president; A. E. Miller, treasurer; G. R. Walker, secretary. Committee on Accounts—Messrs. T. D. Wagner, Thomas Frost, C. E. Wunderlich, Theo. Hochstet and B. Lathers. Committee on Charity—Messrs. C. Graveley, J. T. Welsman and A. E. Miller. The anniversary dinner was served in the afternoon by Tully, and comprised all the delicacies of the season. All the arrangements reflect great credit upon Captain Henry Card and his colleagues of the committee of stewards, and both members and guests enjoyed themselves immensely.

THE STATE COURTS.

The State Supreme Court.

The following cases were disposed of on Wednesday:

Tesse Roof, respondent, vs. the Charlotte, Columbia and Augusta Railroad Company, appellants. Mr. Meetez was heard for appellants. Mr. Monteth for respondents. Mr. Blomberg appellants, in reply.

G. W. Palmer, respondent, vs. the Charlotte, Columbia and Augusta Railroad Company, appellants. Mr. Rion for appellants. Mr. Chamberlain for respondent. Mr. Pope on same side. Mr. Rion in reply.

Olivia McGowan, et al., vs. R. N. Lowrance. New trial ordered. Opinion by Willard, A. J.

The Inferior Court.

was opened at the usual hour by Judge Lee. The following cases were disposed of:

Francis Marion and Henry Brown, burglary and larceny. This case occupied the court until half-past 2 P. M., when it was left with the jury, who were instructed to bring in a sealed verdict.

T. Campbell, breach of trust and grand larceny. Struck off.

J. Forner, assault and battery. Verdict, not guilty.

The grand jury returned no bill against Wm. Hunt for malicious trespass, and true bills against Caspar Hart for assault and battery, Henry Dart for a public nuisance, and Henry Druine for grand larceny.

The grand jury then were discharged until Monday morning ten o'clock, with instructions from the court to bring in their presentment if possible at that time.

Adjourned until ten o'clock this morning.

BOAT SALE.

Three Whitehall boats were sold at auction on Moreland's wharf, yesterday morning, by Lowndes & Gimbali, at the following prices: The "Gun," fifty-six dollars; "Sarah Ann," thirty-one dollars, and the "Duck," fifty dollars.

LADIES' MEMORIAL ASSOCIATION.

The members of the Ladies' Memorial Association are requested to meet at the Confederate Home, Broad street, this (Friday) afternoon, at five o'clock. A full and punctual attendance is desired, as business of importance will be presented.

SURVIVORS' ASSOCIATION.

The proceedings of the annual meeting of the Survivors' Association, held in Columbia last November, have been published in pamphlet form by Messrs. Walker, Evans & Cogswell, and is for sale at Holmes' book store, Green's establishment, and Fogarty's Depository, King street.

THE FRENCH CONSULATE.

The new French consul for Charleston, Monsieur A. Lafavre, recently in the consular service at Munich and Vienna, has arrived at New York and is expected here during the present week. He will relieve M. de Sibourg, who has been long awaiting an opportunity to revisit Europe on leave.

THE ORANGEBOURNE TOURNAMENT.

We are requested by Mr. T. A. Jeffords to say that all persons wishing to attend the Orangebourne Tournament, to be given on the first of May, can, through the kindness of the South Carolina Railroad, purchase return tickets for one fare at the starting points, and from conductors when persons take the train at stations where tickets are not sold.

ODD FELLOWS' ANNIVERSARY.

The fifty-third anniversary of the introduction of Odd Fellowship into America is to be appropriately celebrated this evening by the brethren of the order in Freundschafts-Hall. The programme for the evening includes addresses by Messrs. W. G. DeSaussure, J. S. Buist and A. G. McGrath, prayer by the Rev. O. F. Gregory, and a variety of odes and anthems. The exercises are public, and an especial invitation is extended to the ladies.

REAL ESTATE SALES.

The following real estate was sold yesterday morning at auction: By Leitch & Bruns: The three-story brick building on the south side of Market street, opposite the Academy of Music; lot twenty feet front by sixty feet deep, for seven hundred and fifty dollars—one-half cash, and the balance in one year.

A PLEASANTLY LOCATED LOT ON THE FRONT BEACH

of Sullivan's Island, two doors from the residence of L. Groning, for one hundred dollars cash.

A BRICKBAT BOMBARDMENT.—Between twelve and one o'clock yesterday morning, a disturbance took place in Calhoun street, caused by the demonstrations of a colored man named Charles Williamson, who, having become enraged against the inmates of a house, was venting his rage by shelling the house with brickbats. The noise of the shelling and the cries of the besieged attracted the police, who arrested Williamson. On his way to the guardhouse, Williamson made the most direful threats against Clubs and Stars until he was locked up. The Mayor turned the case over to a trial justice for prosecution.

THE LAFAYETTE ARTILLERY CHARITABLE ASSOCIATION.

At the anniversary meeting of this association, held last evening at Wickling's Hall, corner of King and Society streets, the following officers were elected to serve for the ensuing year: Capt. J. T. Kanapaux, president; J. G. Follin, who declined a re-nomination; J. G. Martin, vice-president; C. J. Zealey, senior warden; John Gonzalez, junior warden; James A. Melvin, secretary; R. Freeman, treasurer; C. O. Trumbo, solicitor. Committee on Finance—G. Follin, H. Brauer and L. Cahill. Committee on Letters—J. A. LePrince, E. Devineau and James E. Coleman. Committee on Relief—U. P. Follin, F. Meli, J. Lavergne, F. O. Kanapaux and F. E. Durbee.

IMPORTANT CHANGE ON THE NEW YORK STEAM LINES.

As usual at this season of the year, the sailing days of the elegant passenger steamships of the New York Lines are Wednesdays and Saturdays, the steamship Wednesday of the Iron Line, leaving here next Wednesday morning, May 1, at ten o'clock, and the Manhattan following on Saturday, May 4. This arrangement will be varied on or after the middle of May, for a few voyages, in the interest of the truck farmers, who will then have heavy shipments to make, and in order to enable them to distribute their cargoes in New York on Fridays, the Iron Line steamers will sail on Tuesday afternoons. Full notice of this change, when to be made, will be given through the newspapers of the city.

HONOR TO WHOM HONOR IS DUE.

The children of the Spring Street Church Sabbath School, at their last annual celebration on Sunday, were led in singing by Mrs. E. T. James on the melodeon, and not by Mrs. Moore as stated in our report. Mrs. Moore was absent on account of an attack of illness, and to Mrs. James, the organist of the church, belongs the credit of training the pupils to that degree of proficiency which they exhibited in their singing at the celebration. A pleasing incident in the exercises, which has not yet been alluded to, was the presentation to the pastor, Rev. J. T. Wightman, D. D., of a splendid bouquet by Miss Carrie James. The latter accomplished this trying feat before the whole congregation with as much grace and sweetness as if she had been a Miss of sixteen summers instead of three.

THE GULF STREAM FOR PHILADELPHIA TO-DAY.—This swift and well appointed steamship sails this afternoon for Philadelphia, and affords the best and quickest opportunity for direct delivery of farm truck to the million of people who live thereabouts. The Gulf Stream is well arranged for this business, and should deliver green peas, &c., shipped by her early on Monday next.

OUR PRICES CURRENT.—We especially invite the attention of our merchants to The News Prices current, issued this morning. Made up with the utmost care, and handsomely printed with entirely new type, it forms, with the business card of the house forwarding it, the most attractive and welcome weekly commercial circular that can be used. Price, for ten copies or more, with business cards, two and a half cents per copy; single copies five cents.

THE GRAND LODGE OF GOOD TEMPLARS.

The several representatives from the subordinate lodges of this popular order in the State met last Tuesday at Sumter, and organized the Grand Lodge of South Carolina. The election of grand officers for the present year resulted as follows: A. Kestrom, G. W. C. T.; W. O. Muller, G. W. C.; Miss J. R. DuShamps, G. W. C.; W. T. W. B. Jackson, G. W. B.; Rev. J. S. Connor, G. W. T.; Rev. J. M. Carlisle, G. W. Chaplain; G. H. O'Leary, G. W. M.; F. A. Tradewell, G. W. D. M.; Rev. N. Graham, G. W. J. G.; H. W. Gardner, G. W. O. S.

CLUBS AND STARS.—Henry Johnson, lodged for catching other people's chickens in Charlotte street, and offering them for sale, was sent to the House of Correction for twenty days as a vagrant.

Robert Foster, for raising a disturbance and striking a child at the corner of Anson and Hazel streets, was sent to the same retreat for a term of thirty days.

Rosetta Martin, a disobedient damsel, lodged by her guardian for safekeeping, was dismissed.

Noah Jenkins, colored, who applied for lodgings, secured them, and was sent next morning to the orphanage to be bound to some occupation.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

[ADVERTISEMENT.]

The Big Gun.
Having noticed the "gamey" article in yesterday's News in regard to the yearly sales of the Singer Manufacturing Company, we would like to offer a word in reply to what we consider a very bungling attempt to humbug the people of Charleston. The object aimed at is to induce the people of this city to believe that the Singer Machine excels all others as a family machine, and as proof of this we were referred to the number sold during last year.

Now, while we shall not attempt to rob the authors of the article referred to of any of their conveniently arranged figures, nor compel them to produce the affidavits upon which these figures are based, still we feel justified in calling the attention of the public to one important fact, which should never be lost sight of by any one contemplating the purchase of a Sewing Machine, and it is this: It is well known fact that a great portion, if not the largest portion, of the machines sold by the above-named company are sold for manufacturing purposes. For such use there can be no question but that they are really excellent machines; but no one should overlook the fact that there is a great difference between the work of the factory and the work of the household.

Having seen the "New Family" Machine extensively advertised, we were led, a few months since, to try it for family use, and we feel compelled to say that, while we consider it a good machine for the purposes for which it was originally made, we are obliged to confess that as a Family Machine its merits have been greatly exaggerated. We think that there are several machines much better adapted for family use.

WE BEG TO inform the public that next Wednesday we will have a lot of 10 to 15 No. 1 work Mules and Horses. It pays those in want of animals to wait on thrival of this stock, as it is selected with care and every one warranted. R. GRAHAM JR.
